

Activate Performing Arts

Creating a rich culture of performing arts and land-based performance.

Producer – specialising in dance, arts and health

P/T 2.5 days a week - up to £26,500 pro-rata

Are you passionate about dance; supporting dance and arts in a health context and work that is made for outdoors? Can you inspire dance makers and engage the community in our work?

Activate's mission is to be a national leader in presenting outdoor land-based arts and work with international partners in the development of this art form. We are guided by social justice and engage socially diverse audiences in this work and our associated work with indoor venues, promoters and also community partners in our participatory programme.

Activate is looking for an imaginative, dynamic and experienced Producer to work with us and share our passion for dance and its transformational qualities.

Do you have the skills and enthusiasm to take up the challenge of this position? If you do then this could be post for you and we'd love to hear from you.

Closing Date For Applications: Midday Thursday 1st March 2018

Interviews To Be Held: Tuesday 6th March 2018

Ideal Start Date: April 2018
